

EUFMC To Welcome Attendees, Spouses, Social Guests and Families With a Host of Special Activities

A long standing EUFMC tradition includes offering unique activities for attendees, spouses and social guests, and their families and the 2022 conference is no exception.

The EUFMC takes place adjacent to Colonial Williamsburg, a living history museum that offers a variety of programs. Complimentary CW admission tickets are provided for all EUFMC registrants courtesy of EUFMC Gold Sponsor Caterpillar. Pick up your ticket and at the EUFMC check-in desk at the conference center.

Special Activities on the EUFMC agenda include:

Saturday, June 4

Evening Ghost Tour for EUFMC Attendees and Families

Join John Sutton of Williamsburg Private Tours, EUFMC's most requested tour guide, for a walk down the eerie streets of Williamsburg illuminated by the lantern's glow. Tour departs from the Williamsburg Lodge Conference Center Arrival Hall at 8:30 PM.

Sunday, June 5

Walking Tour for EUFMC Attendees and Families

John Sutton will lead a walking tour of the restored and reconstructed sites in Colonial Williamsburg and the important history of Virginia's Colonial Capital. The tour will depart from the Williamsburg Lodge Conference Center Arrival Hall at 1:00 pm and last approximately 90 minutes.

Afternoon Tea for EUFMC Spouses

Registered spouses are invited to the "Here Comes the Sun" Tea. There is no need to RSVP and casual dress is fine at this popular event where door prizes are always the highlight. The tea takes place in the Colony Room from 3:00 to pm.

Monday June 6

Shop Till You Drop

Meet the shuttle in the front drive of the Williamsburg Lodge to go to Williamsburg Premium Outlets and The Antique Mall. The shuttle will depart on the hour beginning at 10 am and the last shuttle will depart the outlets at 3:30 pm to return to the Lodge.

Tuesday June 7

Jamestown Settlement - A Living History Museum

Join us for an outing to the Jamestown Settlement, a re-creation of Jamestown as it might have appeared between 1607 and 1624. We'll begin with tour guide, John Sutton, sharing an overview of the importance and history of this area. Learn the true story of Pocahontas and Captain John Smith and experience how the Colonists and Native American Indians lived. There are also gallery exhibits and a gift shop. Lunch for spouses will follow at Le Yaca French restaurant in Williamsburg. Retirees will depart for lunch with John Sutton. Pre-registration is required and the tour will run from 9:00 am until 2:00 pm.

Wednesday June 8

Guided Run and Guided Walk for EUFMC Attendees and Spouses

Guides will lead walking and running groups through the Colonial Williamsburg Historic Area beginning at 6 AM. A pre-run stretch starts at 5:45 am and all running levels are welcome. Participants will return to the Lodge by 7:30 am and t-shirts for pre-registrants will be available that morning.

Yoga Class for EUFMC Spouses

Attend an all levels yoga class at the Spa of Colonial Williamsburg across from the Williamsburg Lodge. Space is limited so pre-registration is preferred. The class begins at 10 am and may be held outside if weather permits.

Afternoon Spa Break for EUFMC Spouses

Join us for a Self-Care Afternoon of guided meditation followed by a spa service offered by the Colonial Williamsburg Spa. The Spa Break begins at 1:30 pm and lasts 30 minutes. Optional service projects will be offered concurrently, including writing cards for a children's hospital and assembling blankets for a local animal shelter. Refreshments will be offered and advance sign up is preferred.

All EUFMC attendees are invited to contribute to a large scale commemorative painting under the direction of Kelly Sullivan, artist. Plan to add your dabs of paint during Sunday registration, the Monday equipment show, on Tuesday morning and after dinner on Tuesday. The big reveal of the final painting will happen at Wednesday dinner. Kelly Sullivan and the FingerSmear experience is provided by EUFMC Leadership Sponsor Terex.

John Foley, who spent his early career as a lead solo pilot in the U.S. Navy's Blue Angels flight demonstration squadron, will be the featured speaker at Tuesday dinner. Foley will appear courtesy of International and the EUFMC Leadership Sponsor is also providing all utility fleet attendees with a complimentary copy of his book, Fearless Success. Additional copies will be available for sale and before and after dinner John Foley will be available for photos and book signings.

After dinner on Wednesday features a concert by The Louisville Crashers, widely recognized as one of the nation's best party bands, courtesy of EUFMC Leadership Sponsor Freightliner. The musicians have made appearances on The Late Show with David Letterman, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, Late Night with Conan O' Brien, The Grand Ole Opry and MTV.
